UNIVERSITY OF PROFESSIONAL STUDIES, ACCRA

NAME: David Eyram Kofi Bentil

INDEX NUMBER: 10342148

PROGRAMME: Bachelor of Science in Information Technology

COURSE: Web Development 1

COURSE CODE: BSIT 201

SESSION: Regular

NAME OF LECTURER: Dr. Samuel Chris Quist

QUESTION:

- Using HTML tags only, design a web page detailing the List of 3 of your Favorite Local Meals (Breakfast, Lunch and Supper).
- For each of the Meals List the Main Ingredients in the Meal.
- Explain how the Meals are Prepared.
- Link this page to the Page you created in Assignment 1 and Vice-Versa

ANSWERS:

```
<!DOCTYPE html>
<html>

<head>
    <title>My Favourite Local Dishes</title> </head>
```

```
<body>
    <h1 id="top" align="center">My Favourite Ghanaian Local Dishes</h1> <hr />
```

```
    <h3>Quick Menu</h3>
    <ul type="circle">
        <li>Breakfast: Hausa Koko with Koose</li>
        <li>Lunch: Waakye</li>
        <li>Supper: Fufu with Light Soup</li>
        <li>Read about Me</li> </ul>
    <hr />
```

```
    <h2 id="breakfast">BREAKFAST: HAUSA KOKO WITH KOOSE</h2>
    <dl>
        <dt>About the Dish</dt>
```

```
        <dd>
            Hausa Koko is a spicy, warm millet porridge that is popular across Ghana, especially in the early morning.
            It is eaten with Koose, which are crispy fried bean cakes. Together they make a filling and delicious breakfast.
        </dd>
    </dl>
```

```
    <h3>Ingredients for Hausa Koko</h3>
    <ul type="disc">
        <li>1 cup of millet flour</li>
        <li>4 cups of water</li>
        <li>Spices
            <ul type="circle">
                <li>1 teaspoon of ground ginger</li>
                <li>1/2 teaspoon of ground cloves</li>
                <li>A pinch of ground black pepper</li>
            </ul>
        </li>
        <li>Sugar (to taste)</li>
        <li>Evaporated milk (optional)</li>
    </ul>
```

```
    <h3>How to Prepare Hausa Koko</h3>
    <ol type="A"> <li>Mix the millet flour with 1 cup of cold water until it becomes a smooth paste with no lumps.</li> <li>Boil the remaining 3 cups of water in a pot.</li> <li>Pour the paste slowly into the boiling water while stirring continuously.</li>
        <li>Add the ginger, cloves and black pepper.</li> <li>Cook on low heat for 15 to 20 minutes, stirring often, until the porridge thickens.</li>
        <li>Add sugar and evaporated milk to taste and serve hot.</li>
```

```
    </ol>
```

```
    <h3>Ingredients for Koose</h3>
    <ul type="disc">
        <li>2 cups of black-eyed beans (peeled)</li>
        <li>1 small onion</li>
        <li>1 teaspoon of ground pepper</li>
        <li>1 teaspoon of salt</li>
        <li>2 tablespoons of corn flour</li>
        <li>Vegetable or palm oil for frying</li>
    </ul>
```

```
    <h3>How to Prepare Koose</h3>
    <ol type="1">
        <li>Soak the beans in water for 30 minutes, then rub them to remove the skins and rinse.</li>
        <li>Blend the beans with the onion and pepper into a smooth, thick paste (use very little water).</li>
        <li>Pour the paste into a bowl, add salt and corn flour, and whisk well for a few minutes.</li>
        <li>Heat the oil in a deep pot or pan.</li>
        <li>Scoop spoonfuls of the paste into the hot oil.</li>
        <li>Fry until golden brown on all sides, then remove and drain.</li>
    </ol>
    Back to Top
    <hr />
```

```
    <h2 id="lunch">LUNCH: WAAKYE</h2>
    <dl>
        <dt>About the Dish</dt>
        <dd>
            Waakye is a meal of rice and beans cooked together with dried millet leaves, which give it a lovely reddish-brown colour. It is served with shito (black pepper sauce), gari, boiled eggs, fried plantain and spaghetti.
```

```

        </dd>

    </dl>
```

```
    <h3>Ingredients</h3>

    <ul type="disc">

        <li>2 cups of rice</li>

        <li>1 cup of black-eyed beans</li>

        <li>A handful of dried millet leaves (waakye leaves)</li>

        <li>1 teaspoon of salt</li>

        <li>Water</li>

        <li>Accompaniments

            <ul type="circle">

                <li>Shito (pepper sauce)</li>

                <li>Gari</li>

                <li>Boiled eggs</li>

                <li>Fried plantain</li>

            </ul>

        </li>

    </ul>
```

```
    <h3>How to Prepare Waakye</h3>

    <ol type="a">

        <li>Wash the beans and soak them for about 1 hour.</li>

        <li>Put the beans and the millet leaves in a pot, add enough water, and boil for 30 to 45 minutes until the beans are half cooked.</li>

        <li>Wash the rice and add it to the pot with the salt.</li>

        <li>Add more water if needed so that it is about 2 centimetres above the rice and beans.</li>

        <li>Cover and cook on low heat for 20 to 25 minutes until the rice is soft.</li>

        <li>Remove the leaves.</li>
```

```
        <li>Serve hot with shito, gari, boiled eggs and fried plantain.</li>
    </ol>
    Back to Top
    <hr />
```

```
    <h2 id="supper">SUPPER: FUFU WITH LIGHT SOUP</h2>
    <dl>
        <dt>About the Dish</dt>
        <dd>
            Fufu is a soft, stretchy ball made from pounded cassava and unripe plantain. It is eaten with Light Soup, a hot and spicy tomato-based soup made with meat or fish.
        </dd>
    </dl>
```

```
    <h3>Ingredients for Light Soup</h3>
    <ul type="disc">
        <li>500g of chicken or goat meat</li>
        <li>4 fresh tomatoes</li>
        <li>1 onion</li>
        <li>2 garden eggs</li>
        <li>1 tablespoon of fresh ginger</li>
        <li>2 hot peppers (scotch bonnet)</li>
        <li>1 seasoning cube and salt</li>
        <li>6 cups of water</li>
    </ul>
```

```
    <h3>How to Prepare Light Soup</h3>
    <ol type="1">
        <li>Wash the meat and season it with salt, half of the onion and the seasoning cube.</li>
        <li>Boil the meat in 6 cups of water for 20 minutes.</li>
        <li>Blend the tomatoes, remaining onion, ginger and peppers together.</li>
```

```
        <li>Pour the blended mixture into the pot with the meat.</li>
        <li>Add the garden eggs and cook for 30 to 40 minutes.</li>
        <li>Remove the garden eggs, mash them, and return them to the pot.</li>
        <li>Taste, adjust the salt, and cook for 5 more minutes.</li>
    </ol>
```

```
    <h3>Ingredients for Fufu</h3>
    <ul type="disc">
        <li>1kg of fresh cassava</li>
        <li>2 unripe plantains</li>
        <li>A little water</li>
    </ul>
```

```
    <h3>How to Prepare Fufu</h3>
    <ol type="i">
        <li>Peel the cassava and plantains and cut them into pieces.</li>
        <li>Boil them together until they are very soft.</li>
        <li>Drain, and put the pieces in a mortar.</li>
        <li>Pound while turning and sprinkling a little water until the mixture is smooth and stretchy.</li>
        <li>Mould it into round balls.</li>
        <li>Serve the fufu in a bowl with the hot light soup poured around it.</li>
    </ol>
    Back to Top
    <hr />
```

```
    <h3>Summary of My Daily Meals</h3>
    <dl>
        <dt>Breakfast</dt>
        <dd>Hausa Koko with Koose</dd>
        <dt>Lunch</dt>
        <dd>Waakye with shito, eggs and plantain</dd>
```

```
        <dt>Supper</dt>
        <dd>Fufu with Light Soup</dd>
    </dl>
    <hr />
    Back to Top  ||
    Autobiography </body>
```

```
</html>
```

My Favourite Ghanaian Local Dishes

Quick Menu

- Breakfast: Hausa Koko with Koose
- Lunch: Waakye
- Supper: Fufu with Light Soup
- Read about Me

BREAKFAST: HAUSA KOKO WITH KOOSE

About the Dish

Hausa Koko is a spicy, warm millet porridge that is popular across Ghana, especially in the early morning. It is eaten with Koose, which are crispy fried bean cakes. Together they make a filling and delicious breakfast.

Ingredients for Hausa Koko

- 1 cup of millet flour
- 4 cups of water
- Spices
  - 1 teaspoon of ground ginger
  - 1/2 teaspoon of ground cloves
  - A pinch of ground black pepper
- Sugar (to taste)
- Evaporated milk (optional)

How to Prepare Hausa Koko

A. Mix the millet flour with 1 cup of cold water until it becomes a smooth paste with no lumps.
B. Boil the remaining 3 cups of water in a pot.
C. Pour the paste slowly into the boiling water while stirring continuously.
D. Add the ginger, cloves and black pepper.
E. Cook on low heat for 15 to 20 minutes, stirring often, until the porridge thickens.
F. Add sugar and evaporated milk to taste and serve hot.

Ingredients for Koose

- 2 cups of black-eyed beans (peeled)
- 1 small onion
- 1 teaspoon of ground pepper
- 1 teaspoon of salt
- 2 tablespoons of corn flour
- Vegetable or palm oil for frying

How to Prepare Koose

1. Soak the beans in water for 30 minutes, then rub them to remove the skins and rinse.
2. Blend the beans with the onion and pepper into a smooth, thick paste (use very little water).
3. Pour the paste into a bowl, add salt and corn flour, and whisk well for a few minutes.
4. Heat the oil in a deep pot or pan.
5. Scoop spoonfuls of the paste into the hot oil.
6. Fry until golden brown on all sides, then remove and drain.

Back to Top

LUNCH: WAAKYE

About the Dish

Waakye is a meal of rice and beans cooked together with dried millet leaves, which give it a lovely reddish-brown colour. It is served with shito (black pepper sauce), gari, boiled eggs, fried plantain and spaghetti.

Ingredients

- 2 cups of rice
- 1 cup of black-eyed beans
- A handful of dried millet leaves (waakye leaves)
- 1 teaspoon of salt
- Water
- Accompaniments
  - Shito (pepper sauce)
  - Gari
  - Boiled eggs
  - Fried plantain

How to Prepare Waakye

a. Wash the beans and soak them for about 1 hour.
b. Put the beans and the millet leaves in a pot, add enough water, and boil for 30 to 45 minutes until the beans are half cooked.
c. Wash the rice and add it to the pot with the salt.
d. Add more water if needed so that it is about 2 centimetres above the rice and beans.
e. Cover and cook on low heat for 20 to 25 minutes until the rice is soft.
f. Remove the leaves.
g. Serve hot with shito, gari, boiled eggs and fried plantain.

Back to Top

SUPPER: FUFU WITH LIGHT SOUP

About the Dish

Fufu is a soft, stretchy ball made from pounded cassava and unripe plantain. It is eaten with Light Soup, a hot and spicy tomato-based soup made with meat or fish.

Ingredients for Light Soup

- 500g of chicken or goat meat
- 4 fresh tomatoes
- 1 onion
- 2 garden eggs
- 1 tablespoon of fresh ginger
- 2 hot peppers (scotch bonnet)
- 1 seasoning cube and salt
- 6 cups of water

How to Prepare Light Soup

1. Wash the meat and season it with salt, half of the onion and the seasoning cube.
2. Boil the meat in 6 cups of water for 20 minutes.
3. Blend the tomatoes, remaining onion, ginger and peppers together.
4. Pour the blended mixture into the pot with the meat.
5. Add the garden eggs and cook for 30 to 40 minutes.
6. Remove the garden eggs, mash them, and return them to the pot.
7. Taste, adjust the salt, and cook for 5 more minutes.

Ingredients for Fufu

- 1kg of fresh cassava
- 2 unripe plantains
- A little water

How to Prepare Fufu

i. Peel the cassava and plantains and cut them into pieces.
ii. Boil them together until they are very soft.
iii. Drain, and put the pieces in a mortar.
iv. Pound while turning and sprinkling a little water until the mixture is smooth and stretchy.
v. Mould it into round balls.
vi. Serve the fufu in a bowl with the hot light soup poured around it.

Back to Top

Summary of My Daily Meals

Breakfast
: Hausa Koko with Koose

Lunch
: Waakye with shito, eggs and plantain

Supper
: Fufu with Light Soup

Back to Top || Autobiography